Unit 2

Part A

Track 6

B1: Shush! We are going to wake my dad up.
B2: OK, OK, but we need to get out of the house so we can go dancing with Claire and Jenny.
B1: Fine, Peter. Maybe you don't mind getting into trouble, but he's going to be mad at me.
B2: It'll be OK. You should stop worrying about it. If we get caught we can deny trying to leave the house.
B1: All right, I enjoy hanging out with the girls but—
M: What are you boys doing? I hope you aren't trying to sneak out of the house.
B1: Uh, no Dad. We were just getting some water. Good night.

Part B

Track 7

G: I can't stand waiting for the bus in this cold weather.
B: I don't mind it. I prefer to stand outside in cold weather rather than hot weather.
G: I think you're crazy. If the weather continues to be this cold, I might have to move to Hawaii.
B: Oh please. Don't start talking about moving to Hawaii. You need to finish high school first.

Part C

G: I am really interested in earning some money for my big trip this summer.
M: Do you plan on working this summer or do you plan on traveling?
G: I am really excited about visiting Russia this summer, so I would like to do both. I apologize for not being able to work all summer.
M: Well, thank you for your interest. We will let you know in the next couple of days about the job.
G: Thank you.

Part D

Track 9

- B: I am having a great time skiing today! What do you think, Claire?
- G: Yes, it's OK today, but I think we wasted our time coming all the way up here from the city. There are too many people on the mountain.
- B: I don't know what you're talking about. I'm having fun just being outside in the sunny weather.
- G: The sun is great, but I am having a problem with people running into each other. There is no point in getting hurt out here.
- B: Well, I'm having a great time. You should stop complaining and start enjoying the day.
