

Unit 1. Artificial Limbs

- A. ④ Legs were made of wood.
- B. ① They are made by humans or machines.
- C. ② In the past, artificial limbs were heavy and ugly.
- D. ③ They were difficult to use.

Unit 2. Seeing Red

- A. ④ But when opponents had similar skills, color did matter.
- B. ② Red or blue uniforms were given randomly to the athletes.
- C. ③ When one athlete was much better, he or she always won.
- D. ① Athletes who wear it are more likely to win.

Unit 3. What's That Noise?

- A. ④ We should care about noise pollution because it affects our health.
- B. ③ Most noise pollution comes from traffic.
- C. ② People do not realize that one of the most common forms of pollution is noise pollution.
- D. ① You may not realize it, but this noise is a form of pollution!

Unit 4. Understanding the Heart

- A. ② This is called “the circulatory system.”
- B. ③ We have lots of little blood vessels in our bodies.
- C. ④ But the heart is surprisingly small.
- D. ① Inside the heart, there are four areas called “chambers.”

Unit 5. Hypertext Literature

- A. ④ Links allow the story to go different ways.
- B. ① Thanks to electronic devices, readers can interact with links in a story.
- C. ② You can think of hypertext as building blocks.
- D. ③ This literature can be made in different formats.

Unit 6. Types of Literature

- A. ④ This means that they have the same sound:
- B. ② Poems are created when words are formed into lines and stanzas.
- C. ① There are many ways to write.
- D. ③ Lines sometimes rhyme at the end.

Unit 7. Poems We Love

- A. ④ But at the end of the poem, the poet makes us think about it.
- B. ① Poems by Shel Silverstein are good examples.
- C. ② You will appreciate how it makes you smile.
- D. ③ No one usually considers what happens to the worm.

Unit 8. Anne of Green Gables

- A. ① They want to adopt a boy to help them on the farm.
- B. ④ She can find the good in any situation.
- C. ② They decide to send Anne back.
- D. ③ She has bright red hair and freckles.

Unit 9. Digital Money

- A. ④ Users download a Bitcoin wallet.
- B. ③ People make and control it.
- C. ① Today, most people carry less cash than before.
- D. ② This is because digital money has become popular.

Unit 10. The History of Money

- A. ④ A commodity is something that is needed by most people.
- B. ② How we pay for things has changed a lot throughout history.
- C. ③ They exchanged something they had for something they needed.
- D. ① Money has existed for thousands of years.

Unit 11. Shopping at the Stock Market

- A. ③ They have to make the value of their company grow.
- B. ④ Investing in the stock market can be a good way to make money.
- C. ① The parts of the company they sell are called shares.
- D. ② Businesses can use the capital they get to expand their business.

Unit 12. What are Credit Cards?

- A. ③ Other users may just make a small payment.
- B. ② When the card is used, the company pays for the goods.
- C. ① You can use a credit card instead of cash.
- D. ④ It can be a problem if credit cards are lost or stolen.

Unit 13. A Face Like No Other

- A. ③ The computer records the geometry of the face.
- B. ① You look at the shapes of their noses.
- C. ② Computers can recognize faces the same way.
- D. ④ It can then be compared to the size of the eyes.

Unit 14. Frank's Lunch

- A. ① He visits the lunch counter with three dollars in his pocket.
- B. ④ With everything together, I've spent $2.00 so far."
- C. ③ He buys a bottle of water for $0.60.
- D. ② "That will be a healthy start to my lunch," says Frank.

Unit 15. The Mistake on Mars

- A. ④ They wanted to measure the climate.
- B. ③ These countries are Myanmar, Liberia, and the USA.
- C. ① They also have different ways to measure things.
- D. ② Most of the world uses the metric system of measurement.

Unit 16. Measuring Animals in the Wild

- A. ④ Scientists can use tools like a measuring tape or a scale to measure a dead animal.
- B. ① A whale in the ocean can't be measured easily.
- C. ③ Scientists do manual measurements of these animals.
- D. ② Scientists need to find a creative way to collect this information.