

Level 1-8

Two Frogs

Andrew Lang

Retold by Kelly Daniels
Illustrated by Reggie Holladay

WORD LIST

another

Another fish is coming.

- The frogs both want to see another city.

between

The small box is between the two big boxes.

- There is a mountain between Kyoto and Osaka.

both

She plays with both dolls.

- One day, both frogs get an idea.

disappointed

She is disappointed with the boy.

- The Osaka frog is disappointed.

eye

This is an eye.

- Their eyes are on the back of their heads!

frog

This is a frog.

- Two frogs live in Japan.

front

This is the front of a shirt.

- “Put your front feet on my shoulders.”

head

This is the baby's head.

- Their eyes are on the back of their heads!

hop

- The rabbit hops away quickly.
- Both frogs start hopping on the road.

meet

- They meet.
- The two frogs meet at the top.

mistake

- He made one mistake on the test.
- The frogs make a mistake.

mountain

- This is a mountain.
- There is a mountain between Kyoto and Osaka.

never

- I never wake up before 5 a.m.
- The frogs never learn their mistake.

north

- On a compass, “N” is for north.
- One hops north.

nothing

- There is nothing in the lunchbox.
- “There is nothing new to see in Kyoto.”

road

- The road is long.
- There is one road from Kyoto to Osaka.

same

- They are the same.
- The frogs get the same idea!

short

- The boy in the green shirt is short.
- The Osaka frog says, “We are short.”

shoulder

- This is her shoulder.
- “I will put my front feet on your shoulders.”

side

- This thing has six sides.
- One hops up the south side.

south

- On a compass, “S” is for south.
- The other frog hops south.

stand

- He stands by himself.
- “We can stand up.”

strange

- This is a strange animal.
- “That’s strange,” the Kyoto frog says.

tall

- The boy in the blue shirt is tall.
- “Tall people can see Kyoto from here.”

top

The mountain has snow on top of it.

- The two frogs meet at the top.

toward

He is running toward the bathroom.

- The Osaka frog looks toward Kyoto.